

SCOTT PRICE

21 Garfield Pl. Apt 3 • Brooklyn, NY 11215
Email: sprice@textuality.org Phone: 718-483-4455

Job Objectives

Position utilizing my skills working with both people and technology...

1. to integrate technology into the curriculum and classroom at the secondary or higher education level, or
2. with a small non-profit or educational institution developing, coordinating, or implementing a technology plan.

Skills Summary Statement

Skilled with current hypertext and web software and design. Recognized efficiency resulting in increased responsibilities at each position; excellent interpersonal skills; skilled at teaching and leading others; strong attention to detail; highly organized; proficient in various technical capacities.

Experience

Exploration Summer Programs, Norwood, MA; Information Technology Coordinator 2001 – Aug 2005

- Provided desktop and network support for office of 23 on Windows NT, Macintosh OS 8.1-10.3, and Windows XP.
- System administration for Novell NetWare, and Windows Server 2003.
- Database administration of FoxPro custom school administration solution, administration and development of custom FileMaker Pro solutions.
- Updated and streamlined IT operations for the new position of IT Coordinator including recommendations for technology purchases, technology policy creation, and coordination of summer staff.
- Train new staff in systems and software.
- Coordinate annual migration to three summer campuses, including the division and merging of databases and networks and creation of summer program administrative offices and teaching labs
- Created and maintained documentation for user support, summer staff training, and system administration

Math Forum, Swarthmore, PA; HTML Designer and Technical Assistant Fall 1999 and Dec 2000 – Aug 2001

- Implemented "math playgrounds" in javascript and DHTML to demonstrate basic algebra concepts
- Redesigned user interface, edited HTML and graphics for The Mathematics Digital Library (<http://www.joma.org/>)
- Evaluated software for "BRAP Project" digital video production (<http://www.mathforum.org/brap/wrap/>)
- edited video for publication on web and CD-ROM for BRAP Project
- consulted on user interface design for BRAP project
- designed and created poster and brochure to advertise BRAP project at the NCTM conference.

Swarthmore College Computing Center, Swarthmore, PA; Dorm Consultant Student Manager Apr 1998 - May 2000

- Hired, trained, and supervised staff of 24 student technicians providing tech support to student body.
- Led bi-weekly meetings for student staff
- Shaped campus computing policy in weekly manager meetings
- Reorganized student staff to support 1998 move to college-wide dual-platform support for student body

Skills and Interests

Platforms/OS: Macintosh OS 8.1-10.3, Windows Server 2003, Windows 98/NT/XP, Novell Netware 3.12, UNIX shell navigation and basic scripting

Languages: Adept: HTML, Java, JavaScript, DHTML, CSS; Basic: C, Perl, Mason, PHP, Scheme (LISP)

Database Solutions: FileMaker Pro 5.0-6, support for Microsoft FoxPro, analysis of Access

Software: Microsoft Office, Eudora, Pine, Outlook, BBEdit, FileMaker Pro and Developer, Apple Remote Desktop, Tinderbox, DokuWiki, basic Sendmail, Norton Utilities and SystemWorks, MailMan,

Web development: Personal weblog <http://www.textuality.org>, UI design for group project <http://www.skein.org>, UI design and mason code for <http://www.joma.org>, HTML and javascript for <http://www.mathforum.org/brap/wrap/>.

Hypertext: Active in Tinderbox software community; attended eNarrative and Tinderbox conferences; created academic hypertexts at <http://www.grendel.org/hunter/htext>; maintains documentation wiki and weblog on hypertext

Education

Swarthmore College, Swarthmore, PA. PA Certification for English Literature at the Secondary Level, Spring 2001

Swarthmore College, Swarthmore, PA. BA with High Honors, English (Lit) major, Education Minor, June 2000
